OUR PUBLIC FORUM

III—Julius Kruttschnitt
On Financing Railroads

The farmers of this nation need to become better acquainted with the railroad men and their problems. It is only those who know that can give us information and the farmers of America should listen attentively to what the men who manage railroad property have to say.

Mr. Kruttschnitt, executive vice president of the Southern Railway, has written an article dealing with the financing of railroads. He said in part:

"The financing of a railroad is a function which the people, through their servants, the Railroad Commissioners, and the Legislature, have never attempted, but it is a most important problem, especially to sections of a State where new railroads are needed. The placing of securities has been left entirely with the promoter and owner of railroads."

"The immediate determination of what earnings the railroad shall be permitted to receive, and what taxes it shall have put on it is in the hands of other servants of the public."

—the Legislators and the Commissioners.

"Managing a railroad is quite different from managing a government where the money is raised by taxes. When the expenditures, for good reasons or otherwise, increase, taxes can be equally increased. The railroads, while servants of the public, cannot raise money with such ease and facility. The railroads must keep their expenditures within their income because while they have some control over their expenditures they have almost no control over their income, their rates being fixed by public authorities."

"There is not a railway manager in the country today who is not fearful that under the pressure of increasing demands the transportation systems of the country will, in a few years, break down, unless the railroads are allowed to earn larger funds wherewith to build it up. There are vast sections of the country, especially in the West, where more railroads are needed and they cannot be built unless the railroads raise new capital."

"People invest money in order to make money, and they are skeptical as to whether they can make money by investing in concerns that are dealt with stringently and unfairly. Railroad securities must be made more attractive to invite investments, and in order that they may be made more attractive, the roads must be allowed earnings that will enable them to meet the increased capital charges."

STAMPS NOW CASH IN RUSSIA

Usage Comes Through Scarcity of Coin—New Issue in New Zealand.

London.—Owing to the shortage of small coin in Russia postage stamps of the value of 10, 15 and 20 kopeks are in use as paper money. At the same time they can be used for postage, but they are printed on stouter paper and have an overprint on the back in black which denotes the new use to which they have been put.

Philatelists will also be interested to know that there is a "war stamp" now in use in New Zealand. The current one penny stamp with the head of King George is overprinted with the words "war stamp" and two stars. It is used in reality as a war tax, in addition to the ordinary postage.

Daily Optimistic Thought. It is madness to live in penury that you may die rich.

Granada.

Granada was at one time part of the Roman province of Roetia, but after the Arab invasion it became an independent Moorish kingdom. It was the last possession of the Moors in Spain, who fearfully gave up their country to their conquerors, Ferdinand and Isabella of Spain, in 1492.

PRETTY CHINESE PRINCESS

Princess Jue Quon Tai, a Chinese princess, posed in her oriental garb especially for this picture in her suite in a New York hotel. The princess is only nineteen years old and is traveling unchaperoned through this country, having left China six months ago after she had refused to marry a wealthy mandarin. Her father was the matchmaker in the case and she did not admire his choice. During her stay here she has already spent $10,000 and "whenever she goes short" all she does is to cable home and mother sends her some more spending money. Her father says she won't have anything to do with him because it is a terrible thing in China for a girl to travel alone. The princess speaks English fluently and is a subscriber to many American newspapers and magazines, so she has a reading knowledge of modern America.

Now Intrigue Means to Embarrass. Words jump between antiquity and fashion. It was but a few years ago that "obscure" came into constant use by the literary. And now "intrigue" is a corpse dug up from the past and in constant use. "It intrigues me" is the phrase. And in dictionaries the sense of "intriguing" is "embarrass" is marked obsolete. It's most emphatically alive.

DAIRY and CREAMERY

NEED OF COW TESTING.

Farmer Cannot Afford to Keep Animals That Do Not Yield Profit. With the constantly increasing cost of production of today the farmer must know what his business costs him as well as his gross returns, says Howard's Dairyman.

The necessity of testing cows for their production is shown by the following figures, taken from various agricultural publications:

In herd A three cows produced milk at a profit of $40.55, while the remaining seven cows in the herd produced milk at a loss of $24.70, a net loss of $2.22 per cow for the herd. If the owner of these cows had sold or given away the seven poor cows he would have made a profit and saved the cost of labor as well. In herd B twelve cows yielded $450.40 profit, an average of $38.04 per head. Owner A guessed at his work and results; owner B tested each cow for milk and butter fat production.

In two Iowa test associations the best cow yielded a net profit of $106.77, the poorest cow a loss of $10.10. The 100 best cows in one association produced 269.2 pounds of fat per cow at a profit of $60.02, the 100 poorest cows produced 188.4 pounds of fat per cow at $24.86 profit. The feed cost for the best cows was only $7.40 greater than for the poorest cows.

In an Illinois test the best fourth of the cows averaged 301 pounds of fat at $31.82 profit, the poorest fourth 188.5 pounds of fat at less than 77 cents profit per cow. Twenty-five of the better cows would have yielded a profit of $788 per year, while 1,021 of the poorest cows would be required to produce the same profit.

Such results are more than enough to show the uncertainty of dairying without accurate knowledge of what each member of the herd is doing. The farmer cannot afford to keep any cows in his herd that do not produce enough to yield a profit even though the herd as a whole is profitable.

Cow testing associations are doing much to interest the dairy farmer in the business end of his work. The first cow testing association was organized in Denmark in 1896. The spread of the work there was quite rapid, while but little attention was given it in this country. During the last few years the interest here has become much more general and a considerable number of cow testing associations have been or are now being organized.

INTERNATIONAL SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

(By H. C. MILLER, Acting Director of the Sunday School Course of the Moody Bible Institute of Chicago.)
(Copyright, 1915, Western Newspaper Union.)

LESSON FOR JANUARY 15

PETER'S SERMON AT PENTECOST.

LESSON TEXT—Acts 2:14-41.
GOLDEN TEXT—Whosoever shall call on the name of the Lord shall be saved.—Acts 2:21.

Comparing verse one (R. V.) with the last clause of verse 15, we conclude that this was one early morning prayer meeting which drew a crowd. In this crowd (vv. 9, 10) and on this occasion we see in miniature the evangelism of the world. What Peter hoped to accomplish is an interesting speculation, and is answered by his manner and mode of testimony. His famous "sermon" consists of 12 verses, and the balance in quotations from Joel, Psalms, etc.

I. The Empowered Witness, vv. 14-36. (1) Peter testified that Jesus is alive. (2) These men, speaking by the power of the Spirit, are not drunk, but are speaking in soberness of a great fact. (3) That they hear "is that" prophesied by Joel (2:28, 29). This Jesus of whom they have been speaking had fulfilled this prophecy by mighty deeds (v. 22), by having risen from the dead (v. 23) and of this the disciples were all witnesses (v. 24). He had also been "exalted" (v. 25), and his glory Peter had witnessed upon the mount (II Peter 1:16-18). (2) Peter asserts that whosoever believes in Jesus as Lord and Christ, the Anointed One, the Messiah, shall be saved (vv. 21, 36). (3) He shall be saved from sin and misery in this world; (b) saved unto a life eternal; (c) he shall receive this same power the disciples had received. Peter's witnessing is the same as Jesus has a right to expect of us, the testimony of personal experience, backed up by the word of God. Jesus was indorsed by his miracles, the testimony of those who had seen him as the risen Lord and by his fulfillment of Messianic prophecy.

He was also exalted in the testimony given in all tongues by the empowering Spirit.

II. The Powerful Result, vv. 37-42. The truth of Peter's words was carried home by the Holy Spirit producing deep conviction of sin. (1) Conversion. The question of verse 37 was a result. They had seen the place of Jesus in the plan of prophecy of God. They saw the boldness of these disciples and they also saw their sin. (2) Confession. Peter's answer to their question was plain and simple. (3) "Repent." I. To change their minds and their attitude towards Jesus, from that which had caused his crucifixion, to one of absolute surrender, of repentance and renunciation of sin; the surrender of the will to Jesus as Lord. (2) "Be baptized." Outward water baptism is involved, but it is the symbol of the inward change of heart, of the renunciation of sin, death to self (Rom. 6:4) and the putting on of Christ (Gal. 3:27). (3) Continuance (v. 42). Having accepted and confessed Christ, they were to teach others, to have fellowship with believers in prayer and in breaking of bread, to continue "in the way."

III. Added Evidence of Power, vv. 43-47. This passage is not a brief for communism. It is interesting to note that this communion was kept by the 120 (v. 44). It was for a special occasion, for they had "tarried at Jerusalem" many days, and beyond doubt, had not provided for a long visit. It was according as each "had need."

It was purely voluntary (v. 45). The Holy Spirit, however, does bring unity and altruism among believers which expresses itself in social relations and service. There is a difference between the gift of the Holy Spirit and the Holy Spirit's gifts (I Cor. 12). The baptism of the Holy Spirit or the gift of the Holy Ghost is always dependent upon real repentance and is accompanied by remission of sins. This experience is the blood-bought right of every believer in the Lord Jesus Christ. To "receive" is to take or to claim, and by simple prayer and faith that is which we have a right (Acts 4:31; 1:15, 16; Luke 11:13; I John 5:14, 15). By making Jesus Lord and Christ, we shall receive the promise (v. 38) which Peter declared, was for Jewish believers, their children for coming generations, and "all that are afar off, even as many as the Lord our God shall call." I. s. gentiles of every coming century.

In other words, Pentecost was but an episode which ushered in an age, the age of the Holy Spirit, and he is for every child of God, Jewish and gentile, in every age and in every church.

During that apostolic age every new manifestation of the spirit through its accompanying addition to the number of believers—"The Lord added day by day those that were saved."

Many believers; believers were the more added multitudes of both men and women—the word of God increased; a great company of the priests were obedient to the faith.

Peter's sermon honors the Scripture, Christ and the Holy Spirit. The spirit can and does use the living word in preparing men for the kingdom of God.

This community is probably no worse affected with the grip than many others as there seems to be sickness in at least one-third of the families. To give the names of all would rival a directory. It is said that the attendance in the schools has been reduced about twenty to a room. People should take the best of care as to exposure during the damp weather.

Mr. Charles Smith has been in Gallopolis this week where he went to visit the family of an uncle, Lloyd Lee, who was drowned last week when the river steamer "Kanawha" struck a pier in the Ohio river near Parkersburg, W. Va. The boat overturned three times before it drifted ashore. Most of the passengers were saved but Lee, who was a steward, was drowned and his body has not been found.

Since the above was written the body has been found and the funeral will be today.
